

Scots bow to pleasure

---

(From page 25) TWO of Scotland's most acclaimed musicians will play with the Melbourne Scottish Fiddle Club in Kew on Sunday. Fiddler Chris Stout and harp player Catriona McKay have been touring Australia and will finish the Victorian leg at Methodist Ladies' College before heading to Adelaide. McKay said so far the trip had been "brilliant". "We had a great turnout on Flinders Island and even got a standing ovation," she said.

Fiddler Chris Stout and harp player Catriona McKay will play at Methodist Ladies' College. Stout, who has been playing the fiddle for 26 years, said they were looking forward to playing in Melbourne and in particular collaborating with the Melbourne Scottish Fiddle Club. "I think this concert, more than any other, will be a great example of the journey of Scottish music," he said.

Details: <http://www.melbournescottishfiddlers.com>